

STUDENT EXPULSIONS

The expulsion of a student from school is strictly governed by Wisconsin State Statute.

The school board is the sole authority for the expulsion of a student. Expulsion recommendations to the Board are to be made by the District Administrator or his/her designee.

Matters related to expulsion, such as grounds, due process, notice, etc., must be done in compliance with current state statute.

Ref:

Adopted: March 16, 1998